Preparations Underway for the 2009 Saddleworld Dressage Festival

Preparations are underway for the 2009 Saddleworld Dressage Festival December 10th – 13th, Werribee Park National Equestrian Centre. The program will include the Victorian Dressage Championships, with separate sections for horses and ponies, the Aachen Challenge for riders between 16 and 25 years and the Pacific League World Cup Final- CDI-W.

For the first time Para Equestrian will also take part. The PE CDI-3* will be a selection and qualifying event for the PE team for next year's World Championships. Young horse qualifiers will be programmed as well as freestyles for Advanced and Inter 1 levels.

Schedules will be available at www.vic.equestrian.org.au by 1st September and entries will close October 28th. The Trade Village will be a great opportunity for a variety of last minute Christmas shopping.

Event Director Caroline Coleby may be contacted on dwts@live.com.au or 0432 505 774 for any enquiries.
